

Out&About

MARC benefit at Shea's American Bar & Grill

A sold-out crowd of 300 people attended the grand opening celebration of Shea's American Bar & Grill on Tolland Turnpike in Manchester on Jan. 16. More than $3,070 was raised to benefit MARC Inc., a not-for-profit organization that supports people with disabilities. A check for $2,000 also was presented to MARC from the Z Rink Sports Foundation of Glastonbury. Photo identifications are from left to right.

1. Laurie Prytko, past executive director of MARC, with Louis Spadaccini, town director in Manchester.
2. Susan and Harold Brainard, Carol Lamb, vice president, MARC board of directors, and Donald Lamb.
3. Ray Martens, Tim Rohan, Barbara Rohan, and Pat Martens
4. Marty Shea, Joel Janenda, and Sean Lindsay, director, MARC board of directors
5. Bill MacLean, an owner of Z Rink, presents a check to Ken Charpentier, MARC executive director. In the background are Manchester Mayor Josh Howroyd and Jack Maloney, an owner of Shea's and Z Rink.
6. April DiFalco, Amy Belske, and Sue O'Connor
7. Ed Epstein, Manchester Probate Judge John Cooney, Alice Byram, and John D. Cooney
8. Diane Beliveau, Jim Walker, Kevin Zingler, MARC Inc. director of marketing, and Manchester Town Director John Topping
9. Chris Crawford, Greg Thresher, Laurie Batignani, and Jessica Gouldsbrough
10. Charpentier with Ed and Shirley Swain
11. David Sombric, Jeanne Kenneally, and Joanne Sombric
12. Lynn Overturf and Virginia Turschmann

